IT CAN BE DONE! by Tony Mauck, (submitted by R. Webster)

Some people will not change. At times, we feel like we are running against a brick wall as we attempt to encourage folks to reject falsehood, embrace the gospel and turn from sin. Many continue on their merry way not realizing or even caring that they traverse a broad way that leads to destruction (Matt. 7:13). If only they could see...the wrath of God is not something with which to trifle (Col. 3:6; Nahum 1:2-8).

Some, however, do change. While many may resist it, some have the necessary faith to make great changes in their lives. Like the Thessalonians, they do an about-face as they turn from vain things to serve a living and true God (I Thess. 1:8).

Simon the Pharisee was appalled that Jesus would allow the sinner to touch Him (Lk. 7:36-50). He said to himself, "If this man were a prophet He would know who and what sort of person this woman is who is touching Him." This sort of woman -- and her sins were indeed many -- loved much and was forgiven much. She changed.

Saul of Tarsus is the classic example of the potential for change. Formerly a blasphemer and persecutor, transformed to an outstanding apostle and selfless servant, "...an example for those who would believe in Him for eternal life" (I Timothy 1:12-16). Even those with missteps in the journey, like John Mark, can recover. Though Paul is hesitant to travel with Mark again (Acts 15:38), he had obviously demonstrated his growth when the apostle later requested of Timothy, "Pick up Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service" (II Timothy 4:11).

Change is possible, if we will to do so and ...enlist God's assistance. God's involvement is indispensable. Growth cannot occur without Him. More like the Master...you can be!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Adam and Connie are looking for families that would like to host a teen devotional in their home for an evening in the coming summer months. Please see either Adam or Connie if you'd like to host or for more information.

Next Sunday is our end-of-the-month fellowship and 1P.M. worship. As a reminder, each family that stays needs to bring enough food for itself and enough to share with visitors. As mentioned before, we can't continue to have 2 or 3 ladies bring 50% of the food. We don't begin eating until the ladies in charge of the kitchen ring the bell and we ask that no carry-out lunches are made till everyone has gone through the line. Also, parents need to monitor their children so that food is not wasted.

Please remember to silence or turn off your cell phones during worship.

PRAYER REQUESTS

The funeral for Rob Hardy's brother-in-law was held here yesterday afternoon. Please keep Rob and his family in your prayers.

Keep in your prayers Rob Hardy's son (Paul), Colleen's friend (Rosemary) and Colleen's sister-in-law (Gwen).

Please continue to remember Shults-Lewis Children's Home, our college kids, our missionaries, and our military personnel.
