ANNOUNCEMENTS

GOALS, VALUES, AND BELIEFS

Briefly, my goals are what I hope to accomplish. My values are my understanding of right and wrong. My beliefs are what I know to be true. Everyone needs to have a firm hold on each of these qualities.

What are your goals? For much of the world, their goals are to be able to work at a good job, to have a satisfying life style, to enjoy some of the luxuries of life, and then to live a retired life of comfort. Of course, there is nothing wrong with wanting to make a livable wage, to enjoy some of the perks of making more money than you need to subsist on, and not having to worry about the end-of-life expenses when that time comes. However, all of these goals are centered in this life only. As Christians, our goals must extend to some deeper aims for this life and extend to the surety of life beyond our deaths. Our goals must be to be blessings to others and to live lives worthy of the One Who lived His life for us and died for us.

What are your values? These are fairly well governed by your consciences. My conscience lets me know if what I am involved in is either right or wrong. It comforts me when I am yielding to its promptings. It keeps me awake at night when I go against what I have come to understand as the right path to tread. Most people’s consciences are products of how they were raised. Their standards of right and wrong have been engrained in their minds and hearts from childhood. However, we have been presented with a higher standard. God, Who knows us better than we know ourselves, has set before us a way of life which promises and has been proven to be an abundant life. It is a life which regards every other person as an object of God’s love. How can I do other than to choose God’s standard of that which is right and to reject that which God has said is wrong?

And finally, what are your beliefs? From a spiritual perspective, Jesus speaks of Himself as the way, the truth, and the life (John 14:6). Our task is to learn from Him those truths and then to hold on to them with such a tenacity that they will be with us through eternity. To believe in God, in His only-begotten Son, in the Holy Spirit (through Whom the Bible was written), in God’s plan to save us, in the reality of the church (the body of Christ), and in His complete revelation to us in the Bible – these must form the core of our beliefs.

Peter

We would like the addresses of all our college kids and members of the military. Please get those to Kendra.

There are 2 lists on the ledge for communion prep and hosting a fellowship meal. PLEASE remember to silence or power off any electrical devices during worship.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Kathryn Musgraves was ill this past Sunday and unable to be with us. We look forward to seeing her today.

Lexi Smith had surgery this past Monday. The doctors anticipate a complete recovery and Lexi will stay in Portugal.

The following is a prayer request from Adam & Connie Burke:

Connie and I would like to ask for prayers as we begin the matching process for adopting children. We would like everyone to know that we are very thankful and appreciative of all the prayers and support we have already been shown as we have gone through this journey.

We continue our search for a pulpit minister. Please keep the elder’s search in your prayers. If you have any suggestions or recommendations, please let that be known to the elders.

Please continue to remember Arcilla Hamilton, Joe & Virginia Hoadley, Eula Gaddis, Marvie Jones, Bob Kern, John Berry, Tommie Welch, Charlene Dyson, Raymond Watson, Jerry Worth, DeLois Davidson, Shults-Lewis Children’s Home, our college kids, our mission efforts, and our military personnel in your prayers.

If you have a request for prayers, please contact Kendra Walker or fill out the back of a visitor’s card and hand it to one of the men serving communion.

Happy Birthday!
